Older Americans Act (OAA) Rule changes became effective March 15, 2024. APD has updated existing policies and wrote new policies as needed to be in compliance with Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). These policies are effective October 1, 2025.

Implementation/transition instructions

As part of the review process, APD has created a single policy and procedure document to house all applicable OAA policies and procedures. This document includes references to existing procedures as well as new policies that were created as a result of the OAA Rule Changes.

Local/branch action required

Area Agencies on Aging (AAAs) should review this policy document to ensure their local policies and procedures are in line with OAA and state requirements. AAAs should reference this central policy document as needed. An Action Request will be concurrently released to provide AAAs with required actions.

Central office action required

Training will be provided.
