Policy

1. The performance management process is a tool to assist managers and supervisors in managing the performance of their subordinates by promoting employee understanding of successful job performance and commitment to the objectives and goals critical to the success of their agency.
 - a. Unclassified and management service employees shall, at a minimum, complete the Performance Accountability & Feedback Model (PAF) Checklist on their subordinate management service supervisory, management service non-supervisory, and classified unrepresented employees as outlined in the PAF Model Checklist.
 - b. Managers who are new to Oregon state government or promoted into a supervisory management position shall complete the required training as outlined in the PAF Model Checklist.
 - c. The first check-in with subordinate employees shall be completed as outlined in the PAF Model Checklist.
2. PAF check-ins shall be completed quarterly and documented in the Department of Administrative Services human resource information system (HRIS). The quarterly check-in cycle shall be followed as outlined in the PAF Model Checklist.
 - a. Check-ins and goals shall be recorded in the HRIS by the end of the month following the end of the quarter.
 - b. Any employee may prepare written comments or rebuttal to their evaluation within 30 calendar days of receiving the check-in which shall be included in the check-in record within the HRIS.
 - c. Performance check-ins may be appealed by classified unrepresented employees under the grievance review process described in State HR Policy 70.005.05 Classified Unrepresented Grievance and Appeal.
 - d. Agencies may provide an appeal process for management service employees in which the agency head shall be the final step.
